Broccoli stems, their florets perfectly boiled in salty water, must be simmered with olive oil and eaten with shaved Parmesan on toast; their leftover cooking liquid kept for the base for soup, studded with other vegetables, drizzled with good olive oil, with the rind of the Parmesan added for heartiness.

An Everlasting Meal Quotes by Tamar Adler

An Everlasting Meal: Cooking with Economy and Grace, by Tamar Adler just wanted to recommend this wonderful book to Mustachians trying to reduce food waste. It's as much a philosophy book as a recipe book, but she's tremendously encouraging and inspiring about how to stretch food and save energy, all while incorporating tremendous flavor into simple foods.
